Estate of Robert Morrison, dec. Pet^r for and Appl. of Administrator.
To the Hon. David White, Judge of Probate of the County of Somerset. The Petitioner of Adm^r undersigned being the eldest son of Robert Morrison, late of Madison, in said Vol. 29, p. 16. County, deceased, interstate, respectfully states that said interstate left personal estate, effects & credits to the value of more than one hundred dollars and that there are outstanding claims against the estate of said dec. which require said estate to be administered, that he left no widow & therefore it is his right and duty to administer on said estate: He therefore prays that a letter of administration may be granted to him. Aug 4, 1837. Lucius Morrison.

Somerset, ss. At a Court of Probate, hold at Newidgenowack within and for said County, on the first Tuesday of August, A.D., 1837. On the above petition Ordered and Decreed, That said Lucius Morrison be and he hereby is appointed Administrator of the estate of said deceased, he giving bond in the sum of two hundred dollars with securities to the satisfaction of this Court, and thereupon a Letter of Administration to issue to him pursuant to law. David White, Judge.

Estate of Robert Morrison dec'd

N. 1824

Rep. of Bro.

To the Hon. Judge of Probate for the County of Somerset.
Respectfully represents Lucius Morrison of Madison in said County Administrator of the Estate of Rob^t Morrison late of Madison in said County deceased, that from what he knows of the condition and circumstances of the said deceased's Estate, and the amount of the claims thereon he is apprehensive it will be insufficient to pay all the just debts which he owed: he therefore represents the same as insolvent and prays that your Honour would nominate and appoint commissioners to receive and examine the claims of the several creditors thereof according to law. Dated at Bridgewater in said County the 4th day of March A. D. 1862. Lucius Morrison.

At a Court of Probate held at Bridgewater, within and for the County of Somerset, on the first Tuesday of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty two. Upon the foregoing Petition, it appearing that the Estate of said deceased is apparently insolvent, I do thereupon Decree, that six months from this time be allowed to the Creditors of said deceased, to bring in and prove their claims, and that a Warrant issue to Wm Philbrick and John Chace of Stonehenge in said County, authorizing them to receive, examine and report the same.
